The agreement, following a series of conferences between Senators Penrose, La Follette, Martin, Smoot, Balley, Stone, Burton, Elorah, Bristow, Bourne and other Senators, was formally offered in the Senate by Senator Penrose as leader of the Repub-

The agreement contained no specific provision regarding adjournment, but is understood generally that adfournment will follow immediately the disposition of the statehood bill. All the measures mentioned have passed the House

Taft Is Pleased.

President Taft was quickly ac quainted with the Senate's action and spressed his gratification, particulardiprocity bill in the program.

Senator Cummins, of lows, Insurgent, after adjournment to-day expressed conviction that despite the program there would be general tarbif program there would be general tarist revision before the close. He based his belief on the fact that the Democrats and Insurgents would stand together and force amendments to the free list bill, adding wool, sugar, steel, cotton, etc., to that measure. "At least we shall have legislative revision before we adjourn," he said. "I do not know what the President will do, but we will give him a chance to speak for himself."

The Bristow amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill, proposing a reduction of the sugar tariff, and the abolishment of the "Dutch standard" basis of assessing tariff on imported sugar, was defeated this afternoon, 38 to 8. With the fate of reciprocity predetermined in favor of that measure, Senators already are speculating on the possible result of the proposed votes on the two tariff bills—wool and free list—included in to-day's agreement. No one would undertake to The Bristow amendment to the Cament. No one would undertake to predict the outcome, but all ment. No one would undertake to predict the outcome, but all agreed on the one point that the success or the failure of the measures depends entirely upon whether the Democrats Republicance on set to.

Return to Old Customs.

Return to Old Customs.

Washington, July 14.—The Senate discussed for an hour to-day how it could get back to old customs of debate Senator Bacon's proposed rule, which he said was designed to restore congressional debate which now "reads like a page of a sensational novel" to its former decorum, has provoked wide comment.

New Senators are inclined to think that the charges of mixing too freely in the debate are aimed at them. Senator Root said to-day that the present method of 'indiscriminate debate was "destructive of deliberate consideration of legislation," and Senator Lodge likew'se declared that the Senate must reform its methods or become the laughing stock of deliberate assemblies.

book has been sent out to the American people "for the purpose of pulling something over their eyes to keep them from knowing the real facts."

The witness said he did not know of any restriction or destruction of competition in the sugar business in the United States. He insisted upon explaining, despite Mr. Malby's objection, that his company is in a different position from the "trust" in that it is not "down here asking for high

WOMEN SING SPEECHES

Los Angeles Sufragists Get Around City Ordinance,
Los Angeles, Cal. July 14—Woman suffragists, who were informed a day or two ago that they could not conduct their "doughnut campaign" in city parks, if they delivered "votes for women" speeches, got around the prohibitive brdinance last night by setting their speeches to music and singing them. The opening of the "doughnut campaign," as their pichic meetings are called, occurred in Hollenback Fark, under the auspices of the Wage-Earning Woman's Suffrage League. It was in effect a defiance of the police and park board.

DATE IS SET FOR TRIAL

Case Against McNamaras Will Be Opened October 11.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 14.—After setting October 10 as the date for the opening of the McNamara dynamiting trial, Judge Bordwell discovered that an election on State constitutional amendments would be hell on that day. The court therefore designated October 11 for the opening is not been expected, that the revision would be so speedily arranged. The changes made coincide with public expectations, and the greatest saton that day. The court therefore designated October 11 for the opening of the trial. The date was set as a compromise between the contending claims of the defense and prosecution. John D. Fredericks, district attorney, announced that the prosecution was ready to go to trial at any time.

Senator Cummins introduced new amendments to the Canadian reciprocity bill to-day. One sought to couple a revision of the tariff on metals with the reciprocity measure: the other proposed a revis on of the duty on oilcloth and lineoleum. Senator Bristow resumed his speech against the reciprocity bill, and his attack on the present sugar tariff.

Senator Bristow deolared Cuban reciprocity had taken $10,000,000 out of the sugar tariff and put it into the treasury of the sugar trust.

PUBLIC HEARINGS ALE TO BE HELD

Any Persons Whose Testimony Is Desired Will Be Subpoenaed. President Taft Hears From Chemist's Friends, Expressing Confidence-Matter Discussed by Cabinet.

Washington, D. C., July 14.—A congressional investigation of the charges against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief chemist of the government and famous chemist of the government and lamous as a "pure food" expert, whom Attorney-General Wickersham recommended for dismissal because of irregularities in appointment of experts, was agreed on to-day by the majority members of the House Committee on Department of Agriculture Expendifures.

For a half-hour previous to the meeting the Democratic members were in conference and decided that the investigation should be made. It was left to the full committee to determine when the investigation should begin, who should be the first witnesses summoned and other details.

Wants to Know.

A Democratic member declared that the committee wanted to know "who wanted Dr. Wiley fired, and why." The recommendation that Dr. Wiley be dismissed and the reasons therefor, in his opinion, should be thoroughly gone into Objects of Alliance.

Then follow the objects of the alliance, as set forth in the previous draft. These include the consolidation and maintenance of general peace in the regions of Eastern Asia and India, the preservation of the commerce interests of all the powers in China, and the maintenance of the territorial rights of the contracting parties in the regions of Eastern Asia and India and the defense of their special interests. The revision of the treaty is known to have been largely the result of the discussion of foreign affairs at the imperial conference, and was responsive to the wishes of the colonies, particularly Australia. That it was expected.

House officials nor Dr. Wiley had anything further to say to-day about the case, although it was up for discussion at the regular meeting of the Cabinet. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson said before the Cabinet meeting that he did not know how soon the doctor's answer to the charges against him might be expected. Matter Considered by House Committee on Judiciary, Which Votes to Report Favorably Resolution of Inquiry, Facts Submitted in Person by Delegate.

Washington, July 14.—After secret consideration of charges made by Delegate Wickersham, of Alaska, that Attorney-General Wickersham deliberately permitted the statute of limitations to run against agents of the Alaska syndicate who defrauded the government through perfursive the covernment through perfursions. limitations to run against agents of the Alaska syndicate who defrauded the government through perjury, to the extent of $50,000, the House Committee on Judiciary has determined to report favorably a resolution of inquiry, offered by Delegate Wickersham. The resolution would call upon the Attorney-General to furnish the House with all documents, affidavits and testimony in his possession relating to an affidavit submitted to him more than a year ago, and sworn to by P. J. Douglas, former auditor of the Alaska syndicate in 1968.

Delegate Wickersham startled the committee, when in executive session he produced a copy of an affidavit relating to an alleged criminal act committed by Captain D. H. Jarvis, of the Alaska syndicate, and formerly prominent in the government revenue cutter service, who committed suicide in Seattle on June 22, the day following the introduction of the Wickersham resolution, calling for production of the papers in the case, and by John H.
